The Annual Bark's Swap Meet has been rescheduled to Saturday February 4!

It is your Fault! That is the popular excuse whenever some one is caught in a big mistake. The only thing the membership has done wrong is to humor a member who has grown old and not as responsible as he needs be!

The reservations are rolling in and we are fully booked at this time. I am running a list to release the unclaimed tables at 8:00 on Saturday morning .

This newsletter is late enough that there is no possibility that those who receive it by snail mail cannot receive it before the meeting. If you are not receiving it by email, please consider the option. Email is much easier and less expensive to do...

Please pass the word along to whoever might like to know about the NEW DATE!
